

Sign the pledge. Make our world a better place to ride.

I am for bikes. I'm for long rides and short rides. I'm for commuting to work, weekend rides, racing, riding to school or just a quick spin around the block. I believe that no matter how I ride, biking makes me happy and is great for my health, my community and the environment we all share. That is why I am pledging my name in support of a better future for bicycling, one that is safe and fun for everyone. By uniting my voice with a million others, I believe that we can make our world a better place to ride.
