ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION
(General Laws, Chapter 180)

ARTICLE I
The exact name of the corporation is:

One Fund Boston, Inc.

ARTICLE II
The purpose of the corporation is to engage in the following activities:

The Corporation is organized and shall at all times be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended (the "Code") and Section 4 of Chapter 180 of the Massachusetts General Laws as amended ("Chapter 180"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the principal activities of the Corporation shall be to assist those affected by the Boston Marathon tragedy of April 15, 2013, or other attacks which may occur in the United States in the future.
ARTICLE III

A corporation may have one or more classes of members. If it does, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointments, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, may be set forth in the by-laws of the corporation or may be set forth below:

The Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE IV

Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:

Please see the attached continuation sheets.

ARTICLE V

The by-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers, whose names are set out on the following page, have been duly elected.

If there are no provisions, state "None".

Note: The preceding four (4) articles are considered to be permanent and may only be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.
One Fund Boston, Inc.

Inserts for Article IV: Other Lawful Provisions

Article IV-A, Powers

The Corporation shall have and may exercise in furtherance of its corporate purposes all of the powers specified in Section 9 of Chapter 156B of the Massachusetts General Laws (except the power specified in paragraph (m) thereof), and the powers specified in Section 9A and 9B of said Chapter 156B, provided that no such power shall be exercised in a manner inconsistent with Chapter 180 or any other provision of the Massachusetts General Laws or in a manner which would adversely affect the Corporation's exemption from taxation under the Code.

Article IV-B, Limitation of Liability

No officer or director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its members for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as an officer or director notwithstanding any provision of law imposing such liability; provided, however, that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of an officer or director (i) for any breach of the officer's or director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its members, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit; and provided further that such limitation shall be effective only to the extent that the Corporation's status as an organization exempt from taxation under the Code is not adversely affected thereby. No amendment or repeal of this Article shall adversely affect the rights and protection afforded to an officer or director of the Corporation under this Article for acts or omissions occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Article IV-C, Transactions with Interested Persons

Unless entered into in bad faith, no contract or transaction by the Corporation shall be void, voidable or in any way affected by reason of the fact that it is with an Interested Person. For the purposes of this Article IV-C, "Interested Person" means any person or organization in any way interested in the Corporation whether as an officer, director, member, employee or otherwise, and any other entity in which any such person or organization or the Corporation is in any way interested. Unless such contract or transaction was entered into in bad faith, no Interested Person, because of such interest, shall be liable to the Corporation or to any other person or organization for any loss or expense incurred by reason of such contract or transaction or shall be accountable for any gain or profit realized from such contract or transaction, provided that the material aspects of the contract or transaction and the interest of the Interested Person were disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which authorized the contract or transaction, and provided, further, that the Interested Person reasonably believed the contract or transaction to be in the best interests of the Corporation. The provisions of this Article IV-C shall be operative notwithstanding the fact that the presence of an Interested Person was necessary to constitute a quorum at a meeting of directors or members of the Corporation at which such contract or transaction was authorized or that the vote of an Interested Person was necessary for the authorization of such contract or transaction, but shall be inoperative to the extent that the Corporation's exemption from taxation under the Code would be adversely affected thereby.
Article IV-D, Amendment of By-laws.

The By-laws may provide that the Board of Directors may make, amend or repeal the By-laws of the Corporation.

Article IV-E, Restrictions on Activities.

No part of the assets or net earnings of the Corporation shall be divided among or inure to the benefit of any officer, director or member of the Corporation or any private individual, or be appropriated for any purposes other than the purposes of the Corporation as herein set forth. No contribution shall be made by the Corporation for other than religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, and no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be or include the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office. It is intended that the Corporation shall be exempt from federal income tax under the Code and that contributions to it shall be deductible under the Code, and all provisions of these Articles shall be interpreted and exercised consistently therewith.

Article IV-F, Restriction on Disposition of Assets.

In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the Corporation, after payment or provision for the payment of all liabilities of the Corporation, all of the assets of the Corporation shall be disposed of to one or more organizations with similar purposes which qualify for exemption from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Any assets not disposed of in this manner by the Corporation shall be distributed in accordance with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the principal office of the Corporation is located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations as said court shall determine, provided that such organizations shall have similar purposes and be exempt from taxation under the provisions of said Section 501(c)(3).

Article IV-G, Private Foundation Provisions

It is not intended that the Corporation be a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code. However, in the event that the Corporation is recognized as a private foundation, the following provisions shall apply, notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles or the By-laws of the Corporation:

1. The directors shall distribute the income of the Corporation for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code.

2. The directors shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, nor make any investments in such manner as to incur tax liability under Section 4944 of the Code, nor make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.
ARTICLE VI
The effective date of organization of the corporation shall be the date approved and filed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. If a later effective date is desired, specify such date which shall not be more than thirty days after the date of filing.

ARTICLE VII
